Mayor Told To Arrange For Placing Device

Installation costs have delayed the erection of the three-way traffic light at Court street and Northridge road, Mayor W. B. Cady told council Wednesday evening.

A firm had agreed to sell the light to the city for $40. Council at its last meeting instructed the mayor to purchase the light on a 30-day trial period. Mayor Cady said a representative of the firm told him the price given did not include installation and he wanted instructions from council.

15.000 More In Bonds To Be Authorized For New Disposal Structure

REVISION NEEDED

Well Drilled For Less Than Expected

Two resolutions on the disposal plant program, one declaring council's intention to issue $15,000 worth of bonds to complete the project and the other to transfer funds on the well-drilling contract, were adopted Wednesday evening.

Foreman's Smile Tips Off Final Verdict

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17-(UP) -Paul A. Wright, exonerated by the verdict that he was temporarily insane when he killed his wife and John B. Kimmel, remained in jail today awaiting only a formal sanity examination, after which he will be released, probably Friday.

It remained only for him to prove that he was presently sane. The same jury which decided in four hours last week that he was guilty of manslaughter, agreed yesterday evening after 16 hours of deliberation that he was "not guilty by reason of insanity." Wright had made two pleas against the murder charges, which required two trials. Today, although technically a prisoner, he was making plans for the future which had remained uncertain since he shot his wife and Kimmel at 4 a. m., Nov. 9.

SLOT-MACHINE IRENE

A NOTHER Carrie Nation has appeared in the Mid-west. Her name is Irene Kite and she is flying high. She operate in Illinois instead of Kansas, and she fights slot machines instead of saloons, but her weapons and method are the same. She wields a mean hatchet and cheerfully endures the martyrdom of jails and is praised by preachers.

Last week-end Mrs. Kite was occupying a cell at Edwardsville, "quite happy and contented," as the legal result of disturbing the peace and "maliciously destroying brate the Argentine presidential inaugupersonal property" by appearing unheralded in taverns and smashing slot machines. She insisted that she didn't want to be bailed out.

If the slot machine racket in Madison county, Ill., is the same as in various other parts of the country, it doubtless needs attention. But not necessarily by private hatchet-wielders. It is a job for professional law-enforcers.

"Young Bob" LaFollette recently took a sly dig at his Democratic colleagues who leave the Senate Floor to call the White House for advice and instructions.

Senator George of Georgia got up and denounced the Ellender proposal. He said it would mean regimentation, that it sounded like one of Stalin's proposals, direct from Moscow.

At this point LaFollette strode out of the chamber. Returning in a few moments, he approached Senator Pope of Idaho and several others. "It's all right about the Ellender idea," he said, "I just called up Stalin, and he said to forget about George and back Ellender. So l guess that settles it."

ARMY VS. NAVY

Insiders close to the Army and Navy report that their rivalry for favorable publicity is prodigious. War Department officials especially are irked at the good breaks the Navy is getting, feel that the President is pro-Navy while Secretary of War Woodring is anti-press.

The matter came up indirectly in a Cabinet meeting last week, when Secretary of the Navy Swanson submitted a proposal to take newspapermen on the coming fleet maneuvers.
